

INTERREG III B CADSES POLY.DEV

Meeting of the Steering Committee and Scientific and Technical Committee

Venice, 31st May – 1st June 2007

Airports

“Marco Polo” Venice International Airport<sup>1</sup> (www.veniceairport.it)

From the airport to Venice, BUS is the easier way to get to the downtown. Outside the airport terminal you can catch the following buses:

- ACTV n. 5 (daily, from the morning to the evening): 4 runs every hour
- ACTV n. 4: (work days and night time only)
- ATVO Venice Air Terminal: shuttle, many runs every hour

You arrive to Piazzale Roma (which is very close to Venice railway station).

Treviso International Airport<sup>2</sup> (www.trevisoairport.it)

Low cost friendly. From the airport to Venice, you have to

- catch the bus from the airport to Mestre railway station (20 minutes), and then
- catch the train from Mestre railway station to Venice downtown.

Bus and trains are very frequent
